A SCIENTIFIC DISSENT FROM DARWINISM

"We are skeptical of claims for the ability of random mutation and natural selection to account for the complexity of life. Careful examination of the evidence for Darwinian theory should be encouraged."

Views within Churches...

“Hugh Ross is a leading proponent of “day-age” creationism. His ministry, “Reasons to Believe”, has charters in many U.S. cities including Seattle”

“I kind of read through the text and it seemed obvious to me that it had to be a local flood, not a global flood, and I was shocked to discover that there are all these Christians, and even Christian scholars that held to a global flood.

And I wanted to figure out...how did this happen? ...how did people get off track like this? And maybe I’m speaking a little bit pridefully here, but ...that’s how I was operating in my youth...

“No Longer Focused on God’s Word...”

Charles W. Eliot
President of Harvard University
(1869–1909)

Christopher C.
Langdell
Dean of Harvard
Law School
(1870 to 1895)

“a devoted follower of Charles Darwin’s then brand-new evolutionary theories... Eliot and Christopher Langdell, his newly appointed dean of the law school, determined that teaching at the college... should no longer be focused on God’s Word, but on the teachings of men”

“...No More Right to Life than...”

William Graham
Sumner (1840 –1910)

An American Clergyman,
Social Scientist
at Yale University

➤ Historian Mike Hawkins argues,

“it is accurate to describe Sumner as a social Darwinist...he draws directly upon evolutionary theory to explain society...”

“Before the tribunal of nature, a man has no more right to life than a rattlesnake... no more right to liberty than any wild beast... his right to pursuit of happiness is nothing but a license to maintain the struggle for existence ...”
